

Priorities For The Future

- Improve quality and delivery time of current products
- Establish viable applications assistance activity
- Increase available information content of data
- Implement all digital data handling and processing capability
- Initiate operational transition with real-time reception capability
- Complete operational transition with USDI operational satellite series